UJIMA FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

The Ujima Fellowship is a leadership development program that aims to address structural racism and inequity by creating opportunities for diverse representation within policy-making entities. The purpose of the fellowship is to support young Black leaders between the ages of 18 - 35 who demonstrate a willingness to develop their leadership skills and want to serve within advisory or policy-making entities.

The fellowship is named Ujima (oo-JEE-mah), after the third principle of Kwanzaa. Kwanzaa is a week-long cultural celebration that honors African American and African culture. Ujima means collective responsibility and work. Ujima focuses on the foundation of community building and collaboration as a means to solve problems and stepping away from the individual mindset and moving towards a collective approach.

The Fellowship is a 10-month program in partnership with NAIT, Edmonton Chamber of Voluntary Organizations (EVCO) and various community partners which consists of:

- 35 hours of in-class leadership training
- An 8-month placement with a host agency, board, commissions, or committee (ABCC).
- 20 hours of volunteer work

Program participants who successfully complete all the NAIT course requirements, host placement and volunteer components will receive a dual certificate in Leadership Development from NAIT and Africa Centre.

CANDIDATE REQUIREMENTS

The ideal applicant should be highly self-motivated, independent and have a strong interest in community engagement and leadership development. Applicants must demonstrate how they actively engage in the betterment of their communities through their activities and previous accomplishments.

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

Program participants will complete 35 hours of leadership training that will strengthen their leadership skills and gain knowledge in the area of leadership, organizational and management skills, diversity and inclusion, and strategic communication, etc.

After completing the course, participants will be assigned to an ABCC for an 8-month placement. To complete their placement, in addition to general board member duties and responsibilities, participants will be required to submit highlights of their placement experiences.

CLASS FORMAT

All classes will be in-person instruction. If restrictions change due to COVID mandates, courses will be moved to online instruction.

In accordance with NAIT policy, all program participants will need to be fully vaccinated and provide proof of vaccination before the program start date.

TIME COMMITMENT

Average time commitment will be 4 -6 hours a month and will be dependent on final placements.

STIPEND

Program participants will be paid a stipend for the hours spent in meetings throughout the placement.
