

Sterling Scott bio

16th annual Africa Day Gala Keynote

Often described as a high-energy performer and a crowd favourite Sterling Scott has become one of comedy's rising stars. Sterling's material stems from his experiences with relationships, family, being a father, current events, his incredulous outlook on life and the world, and those awkward moments that people from all walks of life can relate to. Sterling's style of comedy mixes laughter with truth, poking fun at things from multiple perspectives with the intention to unite people rather than divide. He has performed multiple times on television and streaming services such as Amazon Prime and Crave. He has also traveled overseas to Iraq, Kuwait, and Afghanistan for the U.S. Military as well as fifteen other countries spreading laughter and wishing every audience "Good Days Better nights"
